The Comptroller, however recommends lenient treatment by the grant of a pension. The pension is recommended in consideration of

(1) his long service of over 27 yrs
(2) the difficulties he would be put to by his dismissal in his advanced age, and,
(3) his present helpless condition

These circumstances may, when coupled with the fact that the indebtedness is the result of circs beyond control and is not due to any extravagant or dissipated habits, allow a departure from the rule 15. Besides pension being a reward for good service and not granted for misconduct, insolvency or inefficiency (art: 240 M. S. R), it is a matter for consideration whether it is not necessary to investigate into the cause of indebtedness before final orders are passed on the Comptroller's reference

The official is persistently running into debt & cannot be considered as blameless.

SIR,

I have the honour to report that the pay of F.A.S. Devambu Kemar, 2nd Grade, Accountant of this office, has been under frequent attachments from 1899 and from June 1913 attachment is continuous. Repeated warnings and instructions to clear his debts have had no effect and he seems helpless in the matter. A list of warrants, attachments etc., received against him is attached. A sum of Rs. 263--1--11 is still due by him in respect of the attachments still in office and this will take about two years at the rate at which it is now being repaid.

2. On account of this indebtedness he seems to be very much worried and has consequently not been able to devote full and proper attention to his office work. I, therefore, think it best for all concerned to remove him from the office. Rule 15 of the rules for the conduct of Government servants issued with Government Order No. G. 765-816/G.M. 392-14-2 of the 9th July 1915 requires the dismissal of such officials; but considering his long service of over 27 years and the difficulties he would be put to by his dismissal in his advanced age and his present helpless condition, I beg to recommend that that his case may be treated leniently as a special case and would suggest that he may be retired on pension. He is retained in the office pending the receipt of orders of Government which may be communicated as early as practicable. His pension application will be submitted immediately on receipt of orders.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

J Chakravarti

To

The Comptroller of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to solicit the favour of your forwarding my representation to Government.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Bangalore, 11

To

The Secretary to Government,

General Department,

Thro'

The Comptroller of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to Comptroller's report No. 26 dated 28th August 1915, I beg most respectfully ~~khx~~ to submit that the major portion of the debts hitherto discharged were ancestral ones.

Under warnings from the Comptroller to clear debts and be free I sold last year in June 1914 my house in Serpentine Street, for Rs. 2,500/- which was solely utilized for clearing debts, leaving a surplus debt of about Rs. 600/- scattered about here and there. I had to sell away my house as I could not lead an anxious troubled life and leave a like heritage to my children. There is a balance which is being paid partially by me and partly by attachment of my pay. I no doubt feel degraded in other men's eyes as well as in my own.

Out of regard to my present distressed circumstances and long-standing faithful service extending over nearly 28 years I beseech your honour may be pleased to move Government to retain me in service till my Life Insurance Policy matures and exempt me from the operation of Rule 15 of Rules, for the conduct of Government servants issued recently.

The attachment of my pay itself is a hard struggle, but it is the only way to pay back my debts.

It is my sorrowful conviction that although the Comptroller has condescended to recommend my case for a lenient and charitable view I am likely to be cast into prison at the instance of

of harrassing creditors. if I am retained here - having no means to liquidate the debts.

I may be permitted to add that I am in no way worried and I am all attentive to my duties. If the above concession be graciously granted I shall as in duty bound pray for your long life, health and prosperity.

I beg to remain,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,
